The Twin Cities Men’s Center Turns 30!

© 2006 by Andy Mickel

With the successful celebration on October 15th, the Men’s Center now enters its 4th decade of public service to the Twin Cities community. More than 35 people attended including these guests: David Grocott, center director of the ManKind Project Minnesota, Tania Jajewski from Chrysalis, and Minneapolis council member Cam Gordon. The past 3 decades we’ve travelled neatly divide the phases of our development. What has remained true over all that time is that the Men’s Center is an umbrella organization providing incubation to leading-edge activity in different areas of men’s work.

The highlights of our accomplishments and challenges over the years define the three-legged stool of the Men’s Center:

- Drop-in Support Groups
- Outreach/Men’s Resources
- Workshops/Conferences/Classes.

In the First Decade, 1976 - 1986

From its beginnings at U of Minnesota Lutheran Student Center, in 1973, the Men’s Center evolved from consciousness-raising men’s groups (of students), and incorporated as 501(c)3 non-profit in 1976. It moved locations 6 times. Greatest lasting accomplishments:

- drop-in, peer support groups

Overarching Theme: men catching up with the women’s movement

- began support groups: divorce, gay issues, general men’s issues
- began the Men In Violent Relationships support groups (became Domestic Abuse Project), HTLV-III (HIV) support groups (became Minnesota AIDS Project)

In the Second Decade, 1986 - 1996

The Men’s Center moved to permanent location at 33rd & Hennepin in uptown Minneapolis—a suite of meeting rooms. Membership peaked in 1989 coincident with the most program activity: the Birth Project, Earline Larsen Workshop, 8th Midwest Regional Men’s Conference, an evening with Robert Bly and Michael Meade. Greatest lasting accomplishments:

- Wednesday Workshop Presentations
- Consistent publication of Men Talk as quarterly journal
- join fabric of TC Social Service community for referrals
- creating a library of over 400 men’s movement & human potential books.
- Overarching Theme: regular program & outreach
- led the development of generic spirituality-based men’s work in Heartland North America
- focus on affirming what is right about men.
- Active role of serving as men’s resources clearinghouse in Twin Cities
- Integration of these men’s work factions: pro-feminist men, men’s rights men, gay rights men, mythopoetic men, new warrior men, etc.
- began fathers & sons groups (became Fathers Resource Center, now Resource Center for Fathers & Families)

In the Third Decade, 1996 - 2006

The Men’s Center has just experienced its most successful decade providing a consistent level of services. The TCMC website was launched in 1995 with a complete Men’s Resource Directory. Men Talk was published on time for 60 consecutive issues. Most notable is the creation of our Men Helping Men with Anger Management classes which are given 12 times per year and now serve the wider community.

Greatest lasting accomplishments:

- Men Helping Men With Anger Management Program
- Re-invention of Men Talk as bi-monthly newsletter.
- Creating a Values Statement

Overarching Theme: Consciousness of Mission; Creation of relevant programs of service to Twin Cities Community

- Consistent participation in Twin Cities Pride Festival

Attend The Men's Center Annual Meeting!

9:00 am, January 13, 2007

This is your opportunity to vote for the new Board of Directors and set the direction of the Men’s Center for the coming year. Come to the Men’s Center and let your voice be heard! All members are welcome.
Greetings from the Chair

On behalf of the TCMC board of directors, I want to thank all of those who helped to make our 30th anniversary celebration a great success. It was wonderful to hear stories about the beginnings of the Men’s Center, as well as the marvelous testimonies of its positive impact on so many people’s lives. Even though we touch on the different activities of the Men’s Center at each monthly board meeting, having so many men together to share their witness created a real sense of awe about all of the great things that are happening as a result of this organization’s existence. If you were not able to attend this wonderful event, be sure to make it to the 35th.

The Twin Cities Men’s Center Annual Meeting will be held on January 13, starting at 9:00 AM. All members are encouraged to attend. If you have ever wondered the idea of giving something back to the organization, please consider submitting your name as a board candidate. If you are not able to attend but wish to run for a seat, just leave your name at the office phone number, or by email. It’s a rewarding job working with a great group of guys, and new blood is always welcome.

There will be no annual planning meeting this year, but TCMC members are strongly encouraged to submit their ideas directly to the board via letter, email, or in person, at any time during the year. The January board meeting will be held on the 15th. All other meetings are held on the second Monday of each month and are open to all members. If you wish to reserve some time on the agenda, simply contact any board member.

2006 has included the beginnings of some good new programs and funding opportunities. Let’s continue the work to make 2007 our best year ever!

Len Zimney
Board Chair

• Hosting non-Men’s Center programs/events; partnering with the ManKind Project Minnesota
• Produced and organized the first regional 2001 Men’s Health & Wellbeing Symposium in the United States
• Began many more support groups: Emotional Abuse Survivors, Sexual Abuse Survivors, 20-Something GLBT, Retirement, Anger Management, Transition, Addiction Busters, Two-Spirited Spirituality, etc.

LOOKING FORWARD, 2006 - 2016

Our most significant contribution to the Twin Cities region has been the continuing process of defining masculinities (plural) counter to the larger culture’s single definition.

In the future:
• Look for us to vastly increase our networking with “like” organizations such as Interfaith Church Council.
• We will emphasize services for “20-something” Younger Men to support them in their relationship challenges with women, men and parents.
• We shall also expand opportunities for adult men to provide Youth Mentoring, perhaps working with city council member Cam Gordon.

Andy Mickel is a long-time Men’s Center member, former editor of Men Talk, current board member, and unofficial historian of The Men's Center.

PRESENTATIONS

Nearly every Wednesday evening, the Men’s Center is proud to offer a presentation on a wide range of subjects of interest to men as well as to our community. This tradition has been part of the Men’s Center offering since it’s founding 30 years ago. These drop-in meetings require no pre-registration, and volunteer experts in the respective subjects conduct them all. Because of our primary mission, all presentations are for men only unless it is otherwise indicated in the individual descriptions.

Please read through these various descriptions to determine which is of interest to you, and consider bringing a friend. This could be an excellent introduction to the Men’s Center for them. Each presentation is intended to foster personal growth and to stimulate interest in the topic.

Our presenters include: Kevin Eliza, Jim Gerhart, J.C. Hancock, John Hesch, Andy Mickel, Steve Peters, Jerry Semmler, and Robert Wilkinson.

A small fee is collected at the door for each person attending:
Non-Members of TMC – $5.
Regular Members ($20 level) – $3
Sustaining Members – FREE

All presentations meet at The Men’s Center, 3249 Hennepin Ave. So, Suite 55
Minneapolis, MN 55408

We welcome your suggestions for new topics and presenters. Please call Randy at 612-822-5892 with your ideas.

The Men’s Center does not endorse, take no specific position, nor does it hold any opinion on the presentations, or of any information imparted, or of the presenter(s) themselves. Presentations are the sole product and responsibility of the presenter(s).

We are all familiar with a man’s physical tools (a hammer, a sword, a plow....) Is this enough? What about integrity, commitment, action and clarity? I know that most men want and need these tools. The New Warrior Training Adventure can help. Join a circle of warriors to ask questions and hear how the adventure has changed men’s lives.

A Circle of Warriors

Presenter: Andy Mickel
When: Jan 10, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Open to men and women.

Let’s face it, our relationships can become pretty humdrum as we go about the serious business of paying the bills and keeping the rain gutters unclogged. We lose the zest we once had for the fun and sweetness love offers our partners and ourselves. So? What to do? Just keep slogging along, hoping for the best? I favor shifting gears, and I’d like for you to take a night off from all that serious, weight-of-the-world stuff we too often carry around to come hear and share some ideas for keeping the life in our lives with our sweethearts. Bring your partner or come alone as you contemplate what you want to have with a future partner. I will share some ideas I’ve been developing for making a respectful, playful courtship a relationship style and for creating wonderful new memories while savoring your old ones.

Stephen Peters, M.A. in Human Development, is a writer and speaker with many years experience working with people of all ages and life situations.
